Little Bras d'Or Strait at Alder Point.

Comments: by: Andrée Crépeau

This route offers the great views that we've come to expect in Cape Breton but it also has the best pavement and low traffic. The ride follows the Little Bras D'or strait to the open ocean past the remains of historic coal mines. The strait is home to an active fishing fleet and during lobster season the numerous wharves are bustling and water is full of boats. Plan to stop at the mid point on the Alder Point wharf and enjoy the view of Cape Smokey and the renowned tidal action.
